That spreads wide its arms for us all,
Together we've sat in the moon-day time,
And snoozed while he shaved us so well.

Many Barbers have tried in vain, old Joe, But their efforts can never compare; Por the customers flock around the shop to see How tastefully he clips of the bair.

There's a change in the times I know, friend Jos. They have chang'd from the old to the new. And I feel in the depths of my pucket the truth That prices down town of have chang'd too.

Four years have passed, or more, old Joe. Since Lew Ransou's nane was first hail'd, And his ahop is deemed a blessing in truth, For to please he has never yet failed.
